A young lady of but sixteen summers, from one of the Southern counties of this State, and now at school in the North, recently addressed s letter to an elder sister at home, in which she animadverte upon the temper and arrogant tone of the Northern press and people towards their countrymen of the South. The following extract from the letter has been furnished us by a friend, intimately acquainted with the writer, whom he represents as one of the most amilable and glifted of her age and sex. The extract itself will speak for her so in the right place. What gallant and attriotic heart in Kentneky that patriotic heart in Kentucky that does not warmly and promptly respond to the uoter of our brave old Commonwealth, while ble epirit and centiment of this fair daugh-

Couledcrate States:

Polltice now engage every one's attention, and we hear nothing but executions against the South. Horace Greely says, "We mean to conquer them—to subjugate them, and we shall do this the more nercifully the more speedily we do it. But when the rebellous traitors are overwhelmed in the field, and scattered likeleaves before the angry wind, it must not be to return to peaceful and contented homes. They must find poverty at their fire sides, and see privation in the anxions eyes of mothers and the rags of children," &c. Now can anything be more detestable? Does not the South owe a heavy &c. Now can anything the more detestable? Does not the South owe a heavy debt of venguance to these snarling, ty-rannical, cunning, mean spirited, swagger-lng Yankees? Should not Southern men, women, and children vow etereal hatred to the jealous tyranny of tha North? No one here is allowed to breathe a word save Union, Union; as if there ever, ever could be a nuion again between the North and be a mion again between the North and the South. These kincolnites are such conceited fools that it makes my blood boil to listen to them. Priding themselves on the assurance they profess, of superior numbers and a full purse, they talk of "ernshing out this rebelliou and tightening the halters around the necks of the rebels." Gov. Morehead, lawing been rallied a liftle on account of his supposed apostacy from the "true l'nion faire." Is said to have returned the fire so strongly as to have put the whole camp late confusion. An attempt to whip in this refractory member will prove werse than madeless, because his positions, to them, are Impregrable. He says be stands on the Crittendan Amendment platform, where the Union justly once shood with him—that he is a Southern Rights mus—that the Peace Conference resolutions were distasteful to many of the South, and more had hever transpled under foot, is vanishing from the minds of our people, and the true purpose and intent of these Northern usurpers is breaking upon them in fearful reality.

According to previous announcement, Joseph II. Lewis, Esq., addressed a large andlence at the Court House, this aftersoon, in favor of Southern Rights. Mr. Lewis is a young man of rare ability as a public debater. The powers of logic and argument are unrivalled. He possesses a happy faculty of presenting to you in its clearest conceptions the striking points, and the cagent reasons in support of his position, and in delense of the cause which he upholds. The result of Mr. Lewis' speech was a perfect outburst of enthusiasm in favor of Southern Rights. The crowd was with him, and their appreciation of his spe ch was manifested by frequent applause.

Kentneky should promptly unsheath her sword in behalf of what will then be a common cause. This is Gov. Morehead's prond position and it will be readly seen what a wide difference there is between him and the miserable Union party who have bobbed and dedged, shirked and changed from one position to another, until they find theruselves now importing Northern arms into the State and ready to claim the protection of theryfort. In this fatsk crisis of our sational affirs, it becomes every daughter of the soil to make such efforts as are in her power, however leable they may be, to stem the tide of passionate lary that threatens to deline our hand in the blood of its citizens, to stamp us before the evilized world as a professed of Christian nation, emulating the barb rous Chinese in the prosecution of a civil war that can only end in desolation to both parties.

To that cruel, the endary, and most lely fields book, I trace much of the evil that is now upon us. If Mrs. Stowe is really a Christian woman, a believer in a leadgment hereafter, she should begin to tremble; for, terrible will be the recaoning she will be forced to give for talents missapplied, blood guiltiness mentred, and a national stigma cast upon a people, many of whom are us anxions to so what is right in the sight of heaven, as the severest Puritan can be. Fromly has my heart exhibited in the brilliant progress toward a great future, which we were traking, and a bitter and stimping blow was it to me to learn that the noble labrie was cleft in twain forever. That is a fact which no man one percer. That is a fact which no man can iguore, and the wildest politician can never point out a course which will again cement the two pottions together. War will only make the clasm wider, deeper, more impassable; and those who should live side by side in bonds of unity, will cherish a most unnatural hattend toward each other nost unnatural hatred toward cach other. That policy is surely bad which makes a deadly enemy of him who must inevitably be your next door neighbor; and, ob, madem? how many hearts must be riven, what tender limity ties must he rant asunder by this nunatural strine. The intelligence of yesterlay that the mynul lons of Federal power had advanced noon the soil of Virginia, produced an electrifying effect in our community, and among the soldiery. Every eye brightened, and every heart beat high with stern delicht, that the hour of vengeance is at hand. If Virginia can be overron by a host of Northern miditance, if one man in defence of his fireside is not equal to two invaders, then this onward movement of our detestable enemy is founded in wisdom. But when that day comes, it will be a new day in the history of nations, and one which will prove that we deserve to be conquered. It has been given out repeatedly of late by the Lincoln press that Genscott desired to delay an advance till cool weather, and till his army was fully organized. But they could not brook the wise delay recommended by the only General one which will prove that we deserve the mame, and the kipublican papers at Washington pronounced Scott behind the times. The persistent attempts of malignant partisans, in and out of Kentucky, to convict these eminent statesmen of disloyal acts and designs, prove the existence of a compiracy to effect a revolution in Kentucky. The instrumentalities invoked in this wicked and treacherous business are various. First the public mind is poisoned in the interpretation to matter the property of the property of the property of the public mind is possible. with innumerable melnuations, no matter how groundless, to excite and inflame, the fussy busy shallow-pated gossippers; next, accessatory imputations are launched, ou scenningly plausible grounds, which being referted, are only changed in form but never sustained by evidence, and never fairly retracted. Following these haldions inchements, come invocations from the Northern press instigating assassins and desperadoes and mobs to seize and hang thousand manufacturers. divovernor Magofile and Senator Breckin-idee; and simultaneously with all those vile processes, come lunnmerable anony-mous menaces and threats against their three, intended to awe, to terrify, to intimiate, and paralize these brave Kentuckians

THREE DIVISIONS TO ATTACK HARPER'S FERRY. ITS EXPECTED FALL.

THREE BRIDGES BURNED IN VIRGINIA

ARRIVAL OF MINISTER DALLAS.

80.000 TROOPS TO MARCH ON MEMPHIS!

4.000 Confederate Troops Near Alexandria!

From Washington.

Prom Washington.

Washington, May 29.—If Harper's Ferry is not already evacuated it will soon lail. The troops there are not near ao nimerons as has been stated. There are not over 4,000 in and about the place. They are miserably equipped and nearly starved. Gen. McClellan, 15,000 troops, is already on the march towards Harper's Ferry. Another force will proceed from Chamberslung under Gen. Kemp, another from Washington, to cut off the rebels.

The Government received no official intelligence from our Minister by the last mail from Europe. The impression, however, which the Etna's mails convey respecting American affairs there is entirely satisfactory to our Government, and clearly indicate that a great change had already taken place in the minds of the people.

A general order has been issued by the War Department granting to volnaleers now enlisting the same money allowances for clothing as the regulars.

The total number of regiments accepted from Illinois for the war is now eighteen, inclusive of Hicker's German regiment.

A St. Lonis regiment, under Col. F. P. Blair, jr., has been ordered to Forriess Monroe.

[Special to the Trillune.]

[Special to the Trilune.] At Grafton there were 2,500 troops or At Grafion there were 2,500 troops on Saturday and more were pouring in from Harper's Ferry. Several bridges had been destroyed, among them one at Clarksburg on the Northwestern Railroad, and one about half way between Wheeling and Grafton. The Iron Monocracy bridge has been threatened, but Gov. Hicks sent a sirong body of Maryland troops to protect. One end only of the Great Rock, blown to-day at Harper's Ferry, had failen on the track, and two hours work with gun powder would suffice to remove it.

Gov. Johnston, it is said, considered that he would have sufficient time to recure his retreat.

ne would have the companies of the compa

force at Chambersburg now threatens liarper's Ferry.
To-day Gov. Banks, commissioned as Maji General, was ordered here for the purpose of placing him in command of an important column.
80,000 troops will rendezvons at Cairo
for an immediate move on Memphis.
The Government is now putting forth all its vigor, and will urge the campaign to the lowest point of latitude consistent with the climate and the epidemics of August and September, without, perhaps, any forment for the number of forces needed.
Lient. Slemmer, arrived at Washington, Lieut. Stemmer, arrived at Washington, says the troops at Pensacola are able to held the fort against any that will be brought against it. The Garrison numbers about 1,000 men, and the rebel forces under free. Bragg, about 6,000.

It is understood that Major-General Fremont will be assigned to the command of the Western Division of the army to operate in the Mississippl Valley.

Two men who were forced into service by the Virginia authories at Richmond have arrived here. They report a bad condition of things in Richmond—the traops leting poorly provided for, and having loget food as best they can. Inceediary fires and robberies are of frequent occurrence. The day the government troops entered Alexandria, a messenger arrived and reported the Federal troops within an hour's march and advancing rapidly, whereupon the whole body of rebels commenced running off through the woods.

[World's Dispatches]
Two Lientenants in the rebel army have Two Lienculants in the rebel army have resigned, having become atterly diagnisted with affaire. The troops are poorly fed and had received no pay.

A letter daled Galveston, Texas, May 19, says. I learned yesterday that all our ports are blockaded. The covernment vessels fired into and stopped a couple of South are vessels, and our ardent Southerners are hot about it. We have two forts on the beach, built of sand bags, and seven or eight pieces of artiflery. Every thing is very duft here, and every one is out of amplionment.

Nowment. Washington, May 30.—A gentleman arrived this morning from the neighborhood of Centreville, Va.—20 miles from Alexandria—who says it is reported that there were about 4,000 Secession troops thereabonis.

The also confirm the report that preminent men continue to be seized and conveyed further into Virgiula as hostages for the safety of about 30 secossion soldiers now in Washington, awaiting the orders of the Government.

A debate had laken place in the H use of Lords upon the American blockade, privateering, and other questions, in which the speakers generally oppose the idea of privateers being regarded as pirales. From New York.

New York, May 30.—The Times' Washington correspondence speculates as follows: Government is becoming embarrassed with the question of how the prisoners cautifully the conflict no washing on rassed with the question of how the prisoners captured in the corfliet now going on shall be diposed of. Scouts are daily picking up men proved to be disunionists. Already those taken exceed 1,000. The rebels are capturing Union men, thinking when they have a sufficient number that they will be able to secure the release of the 26 rebels captured at Alexandria. he 36 rebels captured at Alexandria. I the 35 receis captured at Alexandria. If the Government rates these men as rebela taken in arms against it, they should be hung; if the system of exchange be adopt-ed, there is in the act a recognition of the rebels as beligerants according to all laws of nations. The Cabinet has disensed this point acceral times without coming to any result.

are no rehels at Fairfax Court House. There were troops at that point, but they have fallen back on the main body a Managera Gap. They have literally caten up everything to be obtained at Fairfax Court House, and were driven back for fear of sarvation. The rebels take whatever they can find from the families of friends and foes, and offer to pay liberally, but in the scrip of Virginia.

The determination of Judge Taney to report to the President the result of his endeavor to break down like Federal Government, is a discreet way of getting out of the trouble.

It appears by advices from Fortress Monroe that there is likely to be a stam-pede of slaves through Virginia.

From St. Louis. ST. LOUIS, May 30.—In the habeas cor-jus case of Capt. McDenn'd, Judge Treat yesterday decided that the return of Gen. Hurney was insufficient, and anstalmed the demarrer. The counsel for the defendant then asked leave to amount the return, which was granted.

ARRIVALS, May 30. Tugene, Henderson; DEPARTURES.

THE RIVER Is falling very slowly, with six feet nine inces water in the canal last evening. The weather was clear and pleasantly cool.

At Pitteburg the river was felling, with five feet eight Inches in the channel, and at Cincinnati it was falling quite slowly, with but very little business doing in either quarter.

Capt. Careon, of the tow boats Grampus and Mobawk, arrived from Memphis verterday by the overland route. His boats have been seized at Memphis, and the have been extend at Memphis, and the Captain has gone on home to Pittsburg. We understand that he is a hard working man, dependent upon the business of his tow hoats for the sustamance of his family, and it is a very hard one to thus sunnarily deprive him of the means of carning his daily bread.

marily departs him of the means of carning his dally bread.

This applies with equal, if not more force, to all our Louisville boatmen, but they, however, had on hand in briging on the unholy and unlawful year of subjugation. Can the possile in and about Pittsburg as a much? That district gave over 5,000 majority for the Black Republican Preddent. In addition to that, the Panasylvanians have published an edict prohibiting the 5h panent of call to the South, thus depriving Capt. Carson of the means of carning a lively code. His bests, tike all our Louisville boats, and the St. Leuisboats, are completed to lay mound rot at the wharves. The Circ broat bears, like all our Louisville boats, and the St. Leuisboats, are completed to lay mound rot at the wharves. The Circ broat bears, like all our Louisville boats, and the nost of them had already gone to roust before the cubargo commenced.

The people of Kamphis, we emplose, have stopped these boats partly in retalization for the acts of the Northern people in appropriating their prods, and blockading their ports, and other unlawful acts, and in part to prevent heir seizare by the Vandals at Carno. It is the new same of well as one.

The detention of the Lonisville at Memphis, as we learn from Capt. Holleraft, was caused by the claimer of the steamboat men at that port. The military and city authoritles were willing to let her complete her trip, but the boatmen belonging to other boats dedalated there, made such a demonstration against her departure that it was concluded upon to hold her too, thus treat-ing all alike.

Ing all alike.

The Johrnal, yesterday, in an editorial, raised a great emporover an alleged nating at Nepeleon, Ark., by the authorities at that place detaining the "fletty Gilman, Capit. Gilman, a Louistaile boat."

In the first present a boat of the name of fistsy trains. The editor probably meant the little stern wheeler, Hetry different The name however is beauty. telmore. The name, however, is humaa Cincinnati bost, and the Cartain has been trading Crecionati notions in the South for the past ten years. He wouldn't even en pley a Louisville piot to take his boat over the talls. If she getaway from Napoleon by claiming to be a Louisville boat, as the Journal afteres, it was, to say the least, sailing under fass colors; but we are glad to hear that Louisville saved her.

OF YESTERDAY.

Mary McMoran, a widow, made the acusintance of Jerry Donnivan, on the lest rip of the steamer Louisville from New Orleans. He gained her confidence, and got possession of her money. On arriving at the Galt Hause on Tuesday night he registered the names of J. Donulvan, wife and child. At a late honr the lady, unaware of what he had done, suggested the propriety of his retiring. He forthwith commenced disrobing himself. She remonstrated, and he grabbed the child and threatened If ske did not permit him to ofliciate in the capacity of husband he would cut the child into small pieces. The other still refused, and Jerry left, refusing to give up her money. She followed him down Second street, when he sgain renewed his base proposals. Fortunately policemen Dick Moore and Bob Seav happened along, and, when made acquainted with the facts, they trimmed him hand somely, forced him to give up her money, and then took him to jail. He was held in $400 to answer for his offense.

CRIMINAL COURT. - Lawrence Conally, charged with killing his wife, was acquitted vesterday in the Criminal Court. The cases of L. C. Keach, indicted for felouy, and Mortimer Walker, for perjury, were continued.

CORRECTION .- The name of "Capt. Sillas F. MILLER" appeared in the list of delegates from this city to the Convention at La Grange, as published yesterday, through mistake. Capt. McLLEE is a "Union" man, who wears his colors on his siceve, and i is due to him and all parties that the cor tection should be made.

Ley Gen. Harney recently asked of Gov Jackson and Gen. l'rice, of Missouri, whether a regiment could be marched through the State to the border. The request was politely declined.

MILLERSBURG, Ky., May 24, 1861. Editors Louisville Courier: I am decided ly in favor of free speech and free action, and think there is nothing nobler than to see a person come out boildy on the side he has eaponsed, and stand up for it on all occasions and in all places. the Queen City Abolition sheets boast of having in their midst:

Some few days since a Cincinnatian—formerly from this State—visited our place from the house of M. E.
Reeves & Co.—a regular Black Republican house. Being out on a drumming excursion, he necessarily carries, along everal trunks of curiosities to seli
the "country trade," and realize expenses from. In the assortment was a large number of "shooting tools," which he was reny keen to dispose of, and no doubt would have succeeded, but the price was so cuormons, it made a man's pocket quake to mons, it made a man's pocket quake to think of it.

During his stay, he was very "flush" of Southern sympathy, Southern rights, Secession, &c., all of which suited here to a unit. However, this gent is known as a Republican, a regular Lincolnite out and outer—one of those who wouldn't furnish a "single dead with the Color of the stay of the a "single d—d gun to go to Kentneky til she furnished her quota of troops to ole Abe." Whether or not, the house he rep resents were cognizant of his being sugged in the pistol business, speculating in contraband goods, I can't say; but so much for Cincianati loyalty.

Revolt in the Mosouri State Prison. [Correspondence St. Louis Republican.] JEFFERSON CITY, May 28, 1861.

Last night quite a revolt occurred in the Penitentiary. One of the convicts, Henry Schoenwold, who was convicted of murder Schoenwold, who was convicted of murdir and sentenced to be hung, but whose sentence was commuted to imprisonment for life, cut through his cell about 2 o'clock in the morning, and with a false key unlocked about thirty cells and let the prisoners only in the meat time, a hole had been cut through the roof, where they all congregated, and threw a plank over the wall, and with a rope they began to descend. Four of them got down safe, when the guard of them got down safe, when the guard discovered them and fired; four or five then jumped upon the rope in the confusion, when the rope broke and they were precipitated to the ground, a distance of some thirty or forty feet, all of them having their legs or arms broken. Among those on the rope when it broke was the those on the rope when it broke was the notorious Humphrey, who led his leg bro-ken and his spine badly injured; Johnson, Wilson from St. Louig: another, Jahnson, GREEN convicted of forgery, from St. Louis.

Among those who escaped were:

Joseph G. Allison, sent from Jackson county.

Nicholas Trautwaine, the barber boy, who strangled a man on Broadway, and was sentenced for life, is another.
Patay McDonald, sent from St. Charles county; P. W. Marphy, sent from St. Charles county.

These are all that escaped; the rest were secured upon the walls, where, after the ope had broken, they were powerless. It was a daring scheme, and but for the reaking of the rope, would have been necessful. The main leaders in the transaction, this morning went through the or deal of one hundred lashes well laid on. Little Nick, the barber boy, had a charge of elothes, as his prison anit was found this morning upon the railroad track. He has probably made for St. Louls.
